

Mouhannad Sweiss has a vast experience in Renewable energy, combined with expertise in Photovoltaic projects, from wheeling to net metering. His experience has allowed him to have leadership positions in studying and implementing large scale (Megawatts) projects such as factories and large organizations.

Also, from pre-sales up to sales, Mouhannad has a distinctive skills in coordinating the work flow and the communication between numerous sectors, starting from key stakeholders, implementation team, all the way to government officials.

His experience in Quality Management and Control helped him to strongly satisfy the customers' needs and manage their expectations in an exceptional way.

In addition, He is an ISO 9001:2015 Internal Auditor, Quality management Systems.

Mouhannad holds an MBA degree from Talal Abu-Ghazaleh College of business-German Jordanian University, concentration in Quality Management and Control. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering.

Also, He is PMP® certified, United States.

Moreover, Mouhannad is a Certified Energy Manager (CEM®), Business Energy Professional (BEP®) and Renewable Energy Professional (REP®), from the American Energy of Engineers (AEE), USA.

And last but not least, he has a Six Sigma Green belt Certified, (CSSGB™), Amman -Jordan